Chip's Chats

Hi All.

It looks like we are finally working our way out of winter. I have to admit, it was a rather nice one this year. Hopefully we don't have any snow in May. There were a lot of nice memories from the past trips. The cruise was great. 80's and calm seas with a lot of friend time with each other. The Islands were great. We had some nice winners during the last quarter, although not as many as I would have liked to see.

see.

You will probably notice, I am ramping down the number of trips we take this year. There are a number of reasons for it. First and foremost, the price increases taking place with the casinos and bus company. Because I work with a very small profit margin, it means I have to raise the prices in order to make the trips go. With some of the big things going on in the state this year, it will be hard to get a bus for some of the weeks. I also want to spend a bit more time with family, visiting our granddaughter and finally spending more than the one day soaking a line. We'll see how it all plays out because I say this every year.

If you are planning a group trip, please let me know as soon as possible so I can reserve the dates and be sure to put it in the flyer. It is difficult to get rooms at hotels as we go further into the year. For the trips we already have scheduled, please call as soon as possible because a lot of them fill up rather quickly. I don't want to see you miss the trip you wanted to go on. Gotta run for now. See you on the bus.

2021 CRUISE

Jan. 7-22

We are sailing in the Caribbean again. The dates for next year's trip are January 7 through January 22. As usual we will be spending the first night in Florida in Ft. Lauderdale. From there we will board the Crown Princess. We will be visiting a total of 8 ports and enjoy 5 sea days in the Southern Caribbean. St. Thomas, St. Kitts, Martinique, St. Vincent, Barbados, Trinidad, Curacao and Aruba are all on the agenda. We are waiting for the air price which should be announced in late October or early November. The hotel room and transportation costs come out at that time. These will have to be added later to the price we have for the cruise. You will need to call Lois for the latest price. The prices for the cruise are in the following range: Inside, $1900, Oceanview, $2300, Balcony $3000. These are per person prices. Keep in mind, prices will always be fluid because they change with availability. The same applies to seats on the plane and hotel. Because of this, we need you to sign up quickly so when the room and air prices do come out, we order what we need without paying for rooms and air we won't be using. We are planning on a direct flight to Florida and also on the way back but that will depend on availability at the time. So give Lois a call at The Cruise and Vacation Center, 262-363-9630, get on the list and join us on another great sea adventure.
